

2009 KANGAROO ISLAND FIELD DAY

PROGRAM

WHAT'S ON WHEN

11.00am

- Gymnastics display
- Working Dog Demonstration – see just how good a sheep dog can be
- Learn to repair a punctured bicycle tyre (bring along your own tyre) or bring your bicycle along to the stall for a safety check - available all day. Kangaroo Island Bicycle Users Group.
- SPEAKER: Dr Peter Windsor (OJD Research, University of Sydney) - OJD Vaccination: Recommendations for future use
- JUDGING – Climate Change photo competition

11.30 am

- Kangaroo Island Produce cooking demonstrations with KI Good Food
- Year 4 Recorder and Combined KICE Primary Band – enjoy the sounds of our local youth
- Whip Cracking Demonstration – come learn the art of the perfect Whip Crack
- SPEAKER: Gary Hutchinson (Topoclimate) – the value of micro-climates

12 noon

- Fashion Parade – need something the kids can't destroy or perhaps something with a little more genteel sophistication? Its all hear with Island Style
- Fashion Parade – Direct from AWI, the latest in wool fashions including the amazing Shower Suit
- ABC Country Hour – live from the KI Field Day
- SPEAKER Darren Ray (BOM) - Climate influences in southern SA

12.30 pm

- Whip Cracking Demonstration – come learn the art of the perfect Whip Crack
- Watch art work created before your eyes as Neil Shepard does a painting from scratch to be auctioned after the 2.00pm Sheep Race
- SANFL Junior Football Development clinic
- SPEAKER: Dr Mary Carr (PIRSA Animal Health) - 2008 Pestivirus Survey of Cattle: KI and SA Results/Recommendations

1.00pm

- Famous Strangers bring you the songs you love best (and will continue to do so until 6 pm)
- SPEAKER: Max Rheese (Australian Climate Science Coalition) – climate change sceptic

1.30 pm

- JUDGING: Wacky Ag Art and Farm Gadgets
- SPEAKER: Gary Hutchinson (Topoclimate) – the farm planning process

2.00 pm

- KI Royal Flying Doctor Sheep Race – form a syndicate, buy a thoroughbred racing sheep, dress it in style and join the jet set. Racing stock auctioned by Paul Jardine and race call by Ian Doyle
- Auction of Art work by Neil Sheppard (immediately after the Sheep Race) by Paul Clifford
- SPEAKER: Dr Peter Windsor (OJD Research, University of Sydney) - OJD Vaccination: Recommendation for future use

2.30 pm

- KICE Senior Students and Staff Band – enjoy the sounds of our local youth
- Learn to repair a punctured bicycle tyre (bring along your own tyre) or bring your bicycle along to the stall for a safety check - available all day. Kangaroo Island Bicycle Users Group.
- SANFL Junior Football Development clinic
- SPEAKER: Dr Jack Reddin (PIRSA Animal Health) - KI Sheep Issues from Expanded Abattoir Surveillance

3.00pm

- Fashion Parade – need something the kids can't destroy or perhaps something with a little more genteel sophistication? Its all hear with Island Style
- Fashion Parade – Direct from AWI, the latest in wool fashions including the amazing Shower Suit
- SPEAKER: Max Rheese (Australian Climate Science Coalition)

3.30 pm

- Gymnastics Display
- Whip Cracking Demonstration – come learn the art of the perfect Whip Crack
- SPEAKER: Darren Ray (BOM) - Climate change for South Australia

4.00pm

- Kangaroo Island Produce cooking demonstrations with KI Good Food
- Working Dog Demonstration – see just how good a sheep dog can be
- SPEAKER: Gary Hutchinson (Topoclimate) – climate change and farming

4.30 pm

- Whip Cracking Competition – you've had the chance to learn now put it all into action
- SPEAKER: Max Rheese (Australian Climate Science Coalition)

5.00pm

- Drawing of the gate prize by Ian Doyle – BBQ donated by Linden Lea
- SPEAKER: Max Rheese (Australian Climate Science Coalition)

5.30 pm

- JUDGING – KI Track NRM Sustainability Trail entries and the Landmark Fleece Weight & Micron competition and Weight of Sheep competition
- Announcement of the Peoples Choice award for the Climate Change Photo Competition

Throughout the Day

- Old MacDonald's Farm where you can touch and learn about the baby animals
- Raptor Domain an entertaining and educational display celebrating birds of prey
- Lions Club Merry-Go-Round to keep the little ones entertained
- Health and Well Being
- Rock Climbing Wall
- Live Music – our very own Famous Strangers
- View the entries in the Climate Change Photo competition, the Wacky Ag Art and Farm Gadgets
- Fleece weight and micron – find out just how good a judge you are
- Wander through the Summer Fodder Crop trial plots and see what might grow well on your farm
- KI Track – NRM Sustainability Trail, keep the children amused and educated at the same time
- KI Motor Club vintage car display
- Wander through the exhibits taking note of the Climate Change theme
- Place your vote at the people choice for the Climate Change Photo Competition
- There are full food, drink and bar facilities available through the venue including cooked breakfast sales from 7.00am for exhibitors and volunteers